Synthetic operations record 101

Kit P101 requires 11 units before dispatch.

The return desk accepts kit P101 only after inspection.

Procedure 1: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 2: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 3: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 4: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 5: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 6: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 7: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 8: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 9: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 10: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 11: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 12: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 13: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 14: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 15: check the local manifest and record the event.

Procedure 16: check the local manifest and record the event.

Extension P101 permits storage for 13 days.

Public synthetic development document; no real customer data.